

WHEREAS, Our nation's freedom was born in the families that formed our thirteen colonies; and,

WHEREAS, The family is the birthplace of order, justice, and faith; and,

WHEREAS, Harmony will return to our land when families have practiced tolerance, patience, understanding, and affection to their own and to others; and,

WHEREAS, History is now more clear than in its evidence that honorable family devotion to love, faith, duty and industry have forever been the first early foundation for noble and spiritually great societies; and,

WHEREAS, In this nation--history's most dramatic example of the extension of family values to the total pattern of existence--we are suffering from American neglect of these standards:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 18, 1979, as in South Dakota, and do urge all citizens of this state to join in this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-nine.

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
